In view of vacating of Govt. Quarters of type VII(M), VIII(S) and VIII(M) at Capital Complex , Dispur , a meeting was held under the chairmanship of Hon'ble Chief Minister, Assam to discuss the issue of relocating the occupants of these quarters.

At the very outset the Principal Secretary to the Govt. of Assam, GAD gave an overview of the Govt. Quarters under GAD at various locations. He stated that at present this dept has 81 vacant quarters excluding the quarters at Capital Complex mentioned above and total employees who are to be relocated are 235 nos.

MD, Housefed, Assam has informed that 88 flats are available at Housefed Complex, Maligaon and 2 bighas of land is available at Boragaon which can be used for construction of 60 nos. of Flats.

After a threadbare discussion the following decision were taken-

- The 81 vacant quarters may be allotted to these employees on priority basis.
- The Chairman directed Principal Secretary and Commissioner & Secretary, GAD to inspect the Flats at Housefed Complex, Maligaon and if they are ready, the Govt. may purchase them. The house also decided to provide financial aid to Housefed for construction of Flats at Boragaon.
- A proposal for doubling the HRA of the remaining employees who were not being provided any alternate accommodation may be placed in the Hon'ble Cabinet for approval.
- The Chair expressed that the extension of deadline for vacation of these quarters at Capital Complex may be considered as requested by Karmachari Parishad if required.
- Karmachari Parishad was requested to identify employees residing in Govt quarters who have residences in Guwahati.
- A plan for reconstruction for the quarters at Super Market area may also be chalked out in the future.

The meeting ended with a vote of thanks.
